Reader, did you ever take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the "KING OF LIVER MEDICINES?" Everybody needs take a liver remedy. It is a sluggish or diseased liver that impairs digestion and causes constipation, when the waste that should be carried off remains in the body and poisons the whole system. That dull, heavy feeling is due to a torpid liver. Biliousness, Headache, Malaria and Indigestion are all liver diseases. Keep the liver active by an occasional dose of Simmons Liver Regulator and you'll get rid of these troubles, and give tone to the whole system. For a laxative Simmons Liver Regulator is better than pills. It does not gripe, nor weaken, but greatly refreshes and strengthens.

Every package has the Red Z stamp on the wrapper. J. H. Zellin & Co., Philadelphia.

A Clubbing Offer.

A great many of our readers Linn county like to take the weekly Oregonian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reduction from the regular price to those who want both the Express and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the Express $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both for $2 per year in advance, saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once a week, and the Express gives all the local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2 per year. Those who are at present subscribers of the Express must pay in all arrears and one year in advance to obtain this special price.

THE JORDAN TRAGEDY

A WOMAN SHOTS ANOTHER

Mrs. Lottie Hannah is Under Arrest for Shooting at Mrs. Emma Hiatt. Jealousy the Cause. In Man's Attire.

Last Thursday night a woman by the name of Mrs. Lottie Hiatt—a divorced woman—was shot at her mother's home, near the Jordan valley store, in this county. Mrs. Emma Hannah, wife of John Hannah, who has lived in that vicinity for twenty-five years, is charged with the crime. Below is the facts in the case as published in the Albany Herald.

When Sheriff McFeron reached Seio on his way to the scene of the crime, he took with him Deputy Sheriff William Brenner, of that place. They reached Mrs. Hiatt's house early in the forenoon and found her unconscious, with two bullet holes in her head. On questioning the family, the little girl said that the assassin wore long hair done up in a coil on the back of the head, and suspicion at once pointed to the fact that the assailant was a woman, and was their neighbor, Mrs. Hannah. A woman's tracks were found going to and coming from the house. The officers drove to the Hannah farm a mile distant and questioned members of the family separately. From all the information obtained it was learned that the shooting was done by Mrs. Hannah, and that she was goaded into committing the rash act through jealousy caused by the attentions paid by her husband to the Hiatt woman.

On Thursday evening Hannah and his sons worked until late in a field near the house. A little before dark, Mrs. Hannah sent the small children out to their room, then donned a man's attire, walked to the house of Mrs. Hiatt. She appeared at the door representing herself as a book agent, but immediately drew a revolver and began shooting at Mrs. Hiatt. Five shots were fired, two of which took effect producing fatal wounds. The stricken woman's aged mother seized a stick of stove-wood and struck her in the face. Her false mustache, hat and spectacles fell off and she beat a hasty retreat.

At her house the officers found the coat she wore with blood marks on it, and the revolver with which she did the shooting. The hat left at the scene of the shooting was recognized as belonging to Mrs. Hannah's son.

The accused had been heard to threaten the life of the Hiatt woman, because of alleged undue intimacy with her husband, and she admitted enough to show that she did the shooting, but she and her husband now deny that she was a away from home that evening at all.

Her examination was postponed until Monday. The physicians who were summoned said that Mrs. Hiatt cannot possibly live. Both are middle aged women. Mrs. Hiatt has been divorced from two husbands. One of them, William R. Hiatt, is engineer in the sawmill at Niagara. Mrs. Hannah bears on her face the marks of the blow from the stick of wood in the hands of Mrs. Hiatt's mother, Mrs. Holman.

Believes in Home Industries.

Ex-Congressman Ryan, of Nebraska, who came to Oregon to speak at the state fair, appears to be a practical, levelheaded gentleman. He said he was not a manufacturer, but he believed in patronizing home industry. He said: "With your magnificent timber there is no sense in buying furniture manufactured away from Oregon. It would be difficult to surpass the varieties of wood I have seen here in this pavilion, and if made into furniture at home you save freight both ways besides circulating your money at home and stimulating other industries thereby." He expressed astonishment at the fruit he has seen here and said there is no reason why Oregon cannot supply tons upon tons of fruit in all stages of preservation to the outside world. The Oregon manufacturers of wool also surprised him and he said, "I am going to take home with me a pair of Oregon made blankets to show what Oregon can do in that line. There is no sense in sending Oregon wool to Boston and getting it back here in clothing, with double freight attached." He thought the manufacturers and the people should work hand in hand and not invig against each other by legislation or otherwise—there ought to be reciprocity between them.

A Wreck.

Wednesday night the south bound train met with quite a catastrophe near Rowland. The morning train had dropped a few flats to be loaded with steel rails during the day and the evening train was to take them up. In loading the cars one of them had been moved north some distance, and as a consequence the engineer was mistaken as to the location, and permitted his train to dash into the car at a lively rate. The flat was sent a half mile down the track, the rails were scattered promiscuously, the engine was badly disabled, the passengers were severely shaken, and the trainmen almost frightened to death. A messenger was sent to Harrisburg to telegraph for another engine, which arrived from Albany about midnight. The wrecked engine was taken through Brownville Thursday morning enroute to the shops. A new cow catcher, new boiler head, and numerous other repairs will be necessary. Mr. McGuire passed up the road last evening, for the purpose of investigating the matter, and ascertain, if possible, who was at fault. Some one will probably lose his position, but who we do not know.—Brownsville Times.

A Panther Story.

The Review is not anxious to get up a reputation for telling big hunting yarns, but it is willing to give the following true panther story. Elmer Weekly, who herds sheep for Frank Waite, just over the Coast range back of Callahan's sawmill, came across three panthers one day about three weeks ago and quickly dispatched them. Last Sunday before breakfast he met three more on the trail, and going home, got his gun and Mr. Ensey's dog, and in very short time had three more panther hides. The average length of these animals was about eight feet, all of them fully grown. It is unnecessary to add that panthers are thick in the Coast mountains, and that sheepmen are kept busy protecting flocks.—Roseburg Review.

The Steamer Portland.

The steamer Portland, which has just been chartered by the O. C. & E. railroad, and sailed on her first trip from this port last Monday, is probably the deepest draught vessel that has yet entered our harbor. Her dimensions are as follows: Length, 191.5; beam, 36.1; depth, 29.6; draught loaded, 20; gross tonnage, 1,089; net 779.56; indicated horse power, 650. She was built at Bath, Me., in 1885.—Yaquna News.

The trusts are beginning to fall. The whisky trust has been ordered sold by courts. The cordage trust is broken up and now we are making war upon the thread trust. From now on we will sell first grade six cord thread for 4c a spool, seven for 25c. Three cord, two for 5c. At the Racket store. We also have overalls for 45, 50 and 65c. Engineer's overalls 45, 65 and 90. Men's Jean pants 80c. Ladies' shoes from $1.10 to $2.75. Men's wool hats 30 to 35c. Fur hats $1 to $1.75. Cow-boy hats 75c and $1.50.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says, "Shiloh's Vitalizer 'SAVED MY LIFE.' I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For Dyspepsia, Liver or Kidney trouble it excels. Price 75c, Sold by N. W. Smith.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Stage Robber Caught.

GRANT'S PASS, Sept. 28.—Elda Wood was arrested about forty miles from here this morning, and brought to this city, arriving at midnight, charged with having robbed the stage between Roseburg and Coos bay in August last. It will be remembered that a note was found nailed upon a tree near the scene of the robbery, signed Elda Wood, and threatening death to any one who dared to pursue him. Charles D. Reeser, a miner, who knew Wood well, accidentally ran across him working on the Cooper Mine trail, forty miles west from here, nearly two weeks ago, and spoke to him. Reeser came to this city and wired Sheriff Cartheart, at Roseburg, who came up here and deputized Reeser, who, in company with W. T. Turnham, of this place, went out and brought Wood in. Wood was going under the name of Jim McCarthy.

He denies all knowledge of the robbery, but it is known here that he told parties that he robbed a Chinese camp between here and Roseburg some months ago, and strongly intimated that he had robbed the stage. He answers the description of the man Sheriff Cartheart has been after ever since the robbery, and it is believed no trouble will be had in convicting him.

Sheriff Cartheart left tonight on the overland for Roseburg with the prisoner. The reward for conviction is $500.

An Old Game.

HEPPNER, Or., Sept. 27.—An old way of raising money by the hobo tribe was successfully put into practice here yesterday. Two men and a youth of eighteen came up the Heppner branch. The two men stopped on the outskirts of town and sent the boy into town to "make the play." He had his arm in a sling, and so fixed that it looked as if it might be a very bad arm. He represented that he had relatives in Ashland, and he had no means by which he could get to them. Our city marshal at once became interested and took up a collection of $10 in about as many minutes and gave it to the boy, who, in place of going to Ashland, met his pals and "whacked up." His arm was burned and fixed up to look as bad as possible. Their custom was, whenever they struck a new town, to rebury the old sore. Today the marshal arrested the trio, and will probably put them to work on the streets tomorrow.

A Surprise.

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 27.—Governor Culbertson's proclamation, issued last night, convening the legislature next Tuesday to enact an anti-prizefight law, was a great surprise. There is some talk today that populist and other opponents of the governor may defeat the object by making a law to go into effect in ninety days. It requires a two-thirds vote to give immediate effect. Representative Ward, a leading member of the house, said today the legislature would pass a law to go into effect at once, and would make prizefighting a felony. He thinks the law will be passed within a week after the legislature meets.

Charged With Seduction.

ROSEBURG, Or., Sept. 27.—Lieutenant Henry Luerssen, who left here the latter part of August for a three months' trip to Minnesota, Kentucky and other states, is now under arrest at Princeton, Minnesota, charged with seduction under promise of marriage. The complainant is Miss Alice Buckner, a daughter of the Rev. N. S. Buckner, of Roseburg. An officer has gone east after Luerssen, and will bring him back to Roseburg.

A Plague.

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 27.—An invasion of bugs, amounting almost to a plague, took place in this city shortly after midnight last night. The electric street lights were entirely obscured, and sidewalks and pavements were covered to the depth of an inch. The bugs clogged the typesetting machines and drove the operators from the keyboards. In the morning the electric light men removed over 100 gallons from the street lamps.

The Fight.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The Chicago sporting men do not seem to be much alarmed at the action taken by the governor of Texas. They say it is one thing to call the legislature together and another to secure the passage of a prohibit law. Dan Stewart last night telegraphed F. E. Kennedy, who, with Paddy Carroll, expects to run a load into Dallas for the fight, that it would be brought off in the Indian territory if a law was passed forbidding it in Texas. What action Uncle Sam would take if the two pugilists attempt to meet on his domain is problematical.

Clyde Nash.

McMINN VILLE, Or., Sept. 27.—Corporal Clyde Nash, of company B, O. N. G., is in a critical condition, and will probably die from the effects of injuries received from jumping from a running horse. It is singular that three young men, late of this place, should receive such injuries within the last three months—John Stewari, (Captain Paul Webb), who died recently at Spokane; G. V. Snelling, injured on the cars near Portland, and now Corporal Nash.

Waterloo.

School has commenced.

The town is minus a marshal.

Free council employ country teams to do city grading. How do you poor fools feel who voted as you did?

H. G. Klum has quit hotel life and returned to his cottage.

Many new faces to be seen here. We trust a few whose face resembles an Osage Orange hedge will patronize the new tonorial artist.

The man from Lacombe, who stole the time from Engberg's watch will feel bad when he learns it is only wood and used for a sign.

Those parties who swiped thirteen napkins will please return them as they are needed; furthermore their names will appear in the next issue of this paper.

At the next meeting of the City Dads, orders are to be issued to householders to build flues, as the stores have closed out their stock of pipe and do not desire to re-stock. Parties having brick, please take notice.

Talk of big hops, big prunes, big squash, big melons, but for a big bill we will wager that J. F. Gross can produce the largest one in the county according to value received.

New silver mounted cupidors are to be added to the church regalia. This is to benefit the sewer gang and keep old people from breaking their necks looking for shower baths from the rising generation's jaws.

We are in hopes a few honest German and French families will move to town as we are getting a little more than our share of Henglish.

General good health and prosperity prevails, but we truly believe the man who wrote as "Dad" from this section is dead or is in "Cahoots" with the Sodavillians or he never would sit on another nail keg without trying in some manner to get square with the brute who wrote such rot and heaped his abuse higher than Mt. Hood on an innocent party. When we let anyone be thus maltreated at our expense our cognomen will cease to be JAGGERS.

Notice to Shippers.

Effect Aug. 21st, 1895. The rate on oats from Lebanon by rail to San Francisco, Oakland wharfs, Port Costa and Sacramento, Cal., will be $3.00 per ton in Carloads of 40000 lbs.
